

2022 Georgia Coordinated Campaign – Deputy Data Director Position

The Georgia Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign is seeking a highly motivated, passionate, and talented Deputy Data Director.

Your role will include:

- Design and build reports that track progress and health of key programmatic priorities, including voter contact, volunteer recruitment, leadership development, and constituency outreach.
- Assist in developing targeting and resource allocation.
- Create and maintain data standards to ensure data capture and hygiene.
- Develop and present data and Votebuilder/VAN training materials to other coordinated campaign departments in statewide, small group and one-on-one settings.
- Respond to data support requests, questions and flags.
- Other responsibilities as assigned.

We encourage you to apply if you've got a combination of the following:

- Willingness to learn and adapt to new skills and platforms used by other team members.
- Ability to communicate effectively within teams and across departments.
- A desire to thrive in a fast-paced work environment and implement creative solutions to unique problems.
- A technical skill set that includes familiarity or proficiency in a variety of programming languages/software such as (but not limited to) MS Excel, Google Suite, SQL, Tableau, Python, and QGIS.
- One previous cycle of campaign experience or equivalent political experience in a technical role (familiarity with Votebuilder / VAN preferred).
- Strong organizational skills and attention to detail.
- Ability to work long and irregular hours, including nights and weekends.
- Commitment to electing Georgia Democrats up and down the ballot.

Salary range for this position is $5,000-$6,000 a month. This role will be based in person in Atlanta, and the ability to work remotely will not be available.
