

2022 Georgia Coordinated Campaign – Deputy Training Director Position

The Georgia Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign is seeking a highly motivated, passionate, and talented Deputy Training Director.

Your role will include:

- Support the Training Director in implementing a comprehensive staff and volunteer training curriculum
- Develop and facilitate one-off and curriculum-based training sessions for staff, volunteers, and other audiences across multiple platforms (virtually and in-person)
- Track and report qualitative and quantitative outcomes of training programs
- Coordinate scheduling and logistics for trainings
- Other responsibilities as assigned

We encourage you to apply if you've got a combination of the following:

- 1-2 cycles of campaign experience
- Experience with training staff and/or volunteers on both technical and qualitative aspects of the campaign experience
- Facilitation, education, or public speaking experience
- Proficiency with Votebuilder/VAN
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, both verbal and written
- Commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion in working with staff and other stakeholders
- Ability to adapt to a fast paced, changing work environment
- Ability to work irregular hours, including nights and weekends
- Excellent organizational skills and the ability to multitask and prioritize projects while working on a deadline.
- Commitment to electing Georgia Democrats up and down the ballot

The salary band for this position is $5,000–$6,000 a month. This role will be based in person in Atlanta, and the ability to work remotely will not be available.
