- Develop, produce, and disseminate complete accessible, and accurate voting information
- Build relationships with local party leadership and election officials
- Create voter education resources and assist with the facilitation of trainings for Georgia Coordinated staff, volunteers, and voters
- Supervise the recruitment and engagement of voter protection staff and volunteers in the implementation of the Voter Protection plan.
- Support appropriate legal or non-legal tactics to resolve voting problems

Skills & Qualifications

- Ability to collaborate with a diverse group of stakeholders
- Proven time management skills with the ability to manage multiple projects and competing priorities in order to meet deadlines
- Excellent research, written, and oral communication skills
- Ability to communicate and facilitate information on election law
- Willingness to learn and adapt to new skills and work with other team members
- A desire to thrive in a fast-paced work environment and take a solutions oriented approach to unique problems
- Ability to work long, irregular hours, and maintain a positive attitude

Preferred Background & Experience

- Juris Doctor strongly preferred

- Prior political organizing or campaign experience, particularly experience in voter protection or field
- Local knowledge, including familiarity with Georgia politics and stakeholders
- Proficiency in Votebuilder/VAN and LBJ

The salary range for this position is $5,500-$6,500 a month. This role will be based in person in Atlanta, and the ability to work remotely will not be available.
