Political Director

About the Position: The Democratic Party of Georgia (DPG) is hiring a Political Director (PD) who will develop and oversee the 2020 Political plan for the DPG. The Political Director will work with the Chairwoman and Executive Director to develop and grow the state's political network.

Duties include but are not limited to:

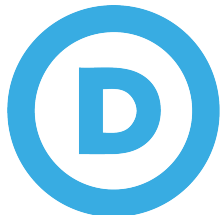

- Planning and supervising the execution of the DPG Political Outreach Program statewide.
- Implementing a political strategy for staff, local elected leaders, county parties, Congressional Districts, allied organizations, and activists
- Creating a statewide training program in preparation for a 2020 and beyond statewide campaign effort.
- Working with other DPG departments to ensure that the DPG and its campaigns have the support of key stakeholders, local leaders, and opinion makers as well as elected officials
- Building relationships with local leaders, key stakeholders, and activists
- Building a strong party for future years and election cycles
- This position reports directly to the Executive Director with substantial involvement from the Chairwoman of the DPG.
- Develop, in coordination with, the Chairwoman's schedule and work as principal
- Additionally, the Political Director will work closely with the Vice Chair of Congressional District Chairs and County Party Liaison and the Vice Chair for Candidate Recruitment.

Qualifications:

- At least two full cycles in statewide races or state-based organizations
- Experience in managing staff
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Great time-management skills and ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously
- Working knowledge of Georgia political, electoral, and legislative processes
